D.O. No. 11018/02/2023-EBSB-Part(1)

Dated: 09th February, 2023

As you are aware, in order to strengthen people to people connect and build empathy between youth of North Eastern States and the rest of India, M/o Education in coordination with 7 Union Ministries has launched 'Yuva Sangam' programme under Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat under which exposure visits of youth (college/ university students and off-campus youth) will be organized between the 8 NE States and other States.

2. In this regard as a pilot initiative, 11 Higher Education Institutions from NE and 14 from other states have been paired. The itineraries have been planned in a manner to give multi-dimensional exposure to the youth under five broad areas - Paryatan (Tourism), Parampara (Traditions), Pragati (Development), Prodyogik (Technology) and Paraspar Sampark (People-to-people connect). In addition to this, various interactions with industrial bodies like FICCI, CM, etc.; interactions at Raj Bhawan, CM office, interactions with MSMEs, startup entrepreneurs, artists, singers, sportspersons, musicians, SHGs, NGOs, etc. will also to be arranged as a part of the tour to enrich their overall experience. The interested youth may apply for the programme through the Yuva Sangam portal at <https://ebsb.aicte-india.org/>. A brief of the programme is enclosed herewith.

3. In context of the above, I request you to issue appropriate directions to all higher education institutions/ autonomous bodies under your purview to widely share the details of the Yuva Sangam programme and encourage the youth for maximum participation in the programme.

Yours sincerely,
